EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$104,500
2022	$250,000
Net Change	$145,500

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$104,500	$250,000	$842	$1,568
TOWN	$104,500	$250,000	$315	$586
SCHOOL	$104,500	$250,000	$2,620	$4,689
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,777	$6,843
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$3,066

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,717	$2,430
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$287

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$54,100
2022	$59,900
Net Change	$5,800

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$43,280	$47,920	$349	$300
TOWN	$43,280	$47,920	$130	$112
SCHOOL	$0	$0	$0	$0
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$479	$412
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$67

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,638	$1,998
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$640

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$68,900
2022	$68,900
Net Change	$0

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$68,900	$68,900	$555	$432
TOWN	$68,900	$68,900	$207	$161
SCHOOL	$68,900	$68,900	$1,727	$1,292
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,489	$1,885
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$604

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$132,200
2022	$167,400
Net Change	$35,200

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$166,200
2022	$202,700
Net Change	$36,500

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$166,200	$202,700	$1,339	$1,271
TOWN	$166,200	$202,700	$500	$475
SCHOOL	$138,300	$172,700	$3,467	$3,239
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,306	$4,985
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$321

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$118,800
2022	$149,100
Net Change	$30,300

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$134,300
2022	$183,400
Net Change	$49,100

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$134,300	$183,400	$1,082	$1,150
TOWN	$134,300	$183,400	$404	$430
SCHOOL	$134,300	$183,400	$3,367	$3,440
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,853	$5,020
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$167

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,181	$2,910
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$729

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$57,700
2022	$57,700
Net Change	$0

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$57,700	$57,700	$465	$362
TOWN	$57,700	$57,700	$174	$135
SCHOOL	$57,700	$57,700	$1,447	$1,082
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,086	$1,579
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$507

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$56,200
2022	$56,200
Net Change	$0

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$56,200	$56,200	$453	$352
TOWN	$56,200	$56,200	$169	$132
SCHOOL	$56,200	$56,200	$1,409	$1,054
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,031	$1,538
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$493

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

COUNTY	$8,200	$8,700	$66	$55
TOWN	$8,200	$8,700	$25	$20
SCHOOL	$8,200	$8,700	$206	$163
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$297	$238
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$59

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$99,900
2022	$99,900
Net Change	$0

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$99,900	$99,900	$805	$626
TOWN	$99,900	$99,900	$301	$234
SCHOOL	$99,900	$99,900	$2,505	$1,874
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,611	$2,734
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$877

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$156,300
2022	$193,100
Net Change	$36,800

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$66,200
2022	$81,200
Net Change	$15,000

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$66,200	$81,200	$533	$509
TOWN	$66,200	$81,200	$199	$190
SCHOOL	$38,300	$51,200	$960	$960
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$1,692	$1,659
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$33

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$165,400
2022	$209,000
Net Change	$43,600

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$165,400	$209,000	$1,332	$1,311
TOWN	$165,400	$209,000	$498	$490
SCHOOL	$137,500	$179,000	$3,447	$3,357
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,277	$5,158
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$119

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,239	$3,985
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$254

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$118,600
2022	$162,500
Net Change	$43,900

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$118,600	$162,500	$955	$1,019
TOWN	$118,600	$162,500	$357	$381
SCHOOL	$90,700	$132,500	$2,274	$2,485
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,586	$3,885
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$299

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,710	$2,053
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$657

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$164,200
2022	$209,800
Net Change	$45,600

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$164,200	$209,800	$1,322	$1,316
TOWN	$164,200	$209,800	$494	$492
SCHOOL	$164,200	$209,800	$4,117	$3,935
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,933	$5,743
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$190

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,251	$3,544
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$293

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$130,500
2022	$130,500
Net Change	$0

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$130,500	$130,500	$1,051	$818
TOWN	$130,500	$130,500	$393	$306
SCHOOL	$130,500	$130,500	$3,272	$2,448
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,716	$3,572
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$1,144

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,503	$3,668
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$165

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$250,000
2022	$529,100
Net Change	$279,100

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$250,000	$529,100	$2,014	$3,318
TOWN	$250,000	$529,100	$752	$1,240
SCHOOL	$250,000	$529,100	$6,268	$9,923
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$9,034	$14,481
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$5,447

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$1,474	$2,262
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$788

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$93,100
2022	$121,600
Net Change	$28,500

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$93,100	$121,600	$750	$763
TOWN	$93,100	$121,600	$280	$285
SCHOOL	$93,100	$121,600	$2,334	$2,281
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,364	$3,329
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$35

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,414	$3,805
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$391

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$162,300
2022	$162,300
Net Change	$0

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$162,300	$162,300	$1,307	$1,018
TOWN	$162,300	$162,300	$488	$380
SCHOOL	$162,300	$162,300	$4,069	$3,044
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,864	$4,442
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$1,422

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$1,939	$2,156
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$217

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$137,900
2022	$163,800
Net Change	$25,900

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$137,900	$163,800	$1,111	$1,027
TOWN	$137,900	$163,800	$415	$384
SCHOOL	$137,900	$163,800	$3,457	$3,072
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,983	$4,483
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$500

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,011	$2,837
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$826

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$108,000
2022	$138,600
Net Change	$30,600

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$108,000	$138,600	$870	$869
TOWN	$108,000	$138,600	$325	$325
SCHOOL	$80,100	$108,600	$2,008	$2,037
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,203	$3,231
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$28

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

TOWN	$128,600	$164,100	$387	$385
SCHOOL	$62,850	$93,400	$1,576	$1,752
Approximate Total Taxes:			$2,999	$3,166
Increase in Estimated Taxes:				$167

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$795,100
2022	$821,400
Net Change	$26,300

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$795,100	$821,400	$6,404	$5,151
TOWN	$795,100	$821,400	$2,393	$1,925
SCHOOL	$795,100	$821,400	$19,935	$15,405
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$28,732	$22,481
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$6,251

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,172	$4,857
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$685

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$123,900
2022	$175,500
Net Change	$51,600

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$123,900	$175,500	$998	$1,100
TOWN	$123,900	$175,500	$373	$411
SCHOOL	$96,000	$145,500	$2,407	$2,729
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,778	$4,240
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$462

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$235	$203
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$32

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$146,100
2022	$187,500
Net Change	$41,400

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$146,100	$187,500	$1,177	$1,176
TOWN	$146,100	$187,500	$440	$439
SCHOOL	$146,100	$187,500	$3,663	$3,517
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,280	$5,132
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$148

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,231	$3,742
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$511

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$118,200
2022	$129,900
Net Change	$11,700

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$118,200	$129,900	$952	$815
TOWN	$118,200	$129,900	$356	$304
SCHOOL	$118,200	$129,900	$2,964	$2,436
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,272	$3,555
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$717

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$80,200
2022	$112,900
Net Change	$32,700

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$80,200	$112,900	$646	$708
TOWN	$80,200	$112,900	$241	$265
SCHOOL	$52,300	$82,900	$1,311	$1,555
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,198	$2,528
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$330

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,056	$4,458
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$598

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$75,500
2022	$91,000
Net Change	$15,500

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$75,500	$91,000	$608	$571
TOWN	$75,500	$91,000	$227	$213
SCHOOL	$47,600	$61,000	$1,193	$1,144
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,028	$1,928
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$100

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.
