A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,546	$3,288
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$742

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$82,300
2022	$130,800
Net Change	$48,500

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$82,300	$130,800	$663	$820
TOWN	$82,300	$130,800	$248	$307
SCHOOL	$82,300	$130,800	$2,063	$2,453
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,974	$3,580
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$606

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$119,600
2022	$182,300
Net Change	$62,700

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$119,600	$182,300	$963	$1,143
TOWN	$119,600	$182,300	$360	$427
SCHOOL	$91,700	$152,300	$2,299	$2,856
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,622	$4,426
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$804

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$10,425	$7,896
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$2,529

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$200,700
2022	$200,700
Net Change	$0

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$200,700	$200,700	$1,616	$1,259
TOWN	$200,700	$200,700	$604	$470
SCHOOL	$200,700	$200,700	$5,032	$3,764
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$7,252	$5,493
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$1,759

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$141,500
2022	$205,200
Net Change	$63,700

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$122,900	$185,200	$990	$1,161
TOWN	$122,900	$185,200	$370	$434
SCHOOL	$75,750	$134,500	$1,899	$2,523
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,259	$4,118
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$859

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,895	$3,444
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$549

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$45,500
2022	$54,400
Net Change	$8,900

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$45,500	$54,400	$366	$341
TOWN	$45,500	$54,400	$137	$127
SCHOOL	$17,600	$24,400	$441	$458
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$944	$926
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$18

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$150,000
2022	$208,100
Net Change	$58,100

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$150,000	$208,100	$1,208	$1,305
TOWN	$150,000	$208,100	$451	$488
SCHOOL	$150,000	$208,100	$3,761	$3,903
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,420	$5,696
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$276

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$83,900
2022	$134,700
Net Change	$50,800

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$195,900
2022	$283,700
Net Change	$87,800

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$195,900	$283,700	$1,578	$1,779
TOWN	$195,900	$283,700	$590	$665
SCHOOL	$130,150	$213,000	$3,263	$3,995
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,431	$6,439
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$1,008

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$98,100
2022	$119,400
Net Change	$21,300

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$98,100	$119,400	$790	$749
TOWN	$98,100	$119,400	$295	$280
SCHOOL	$32,350	$48,700	$811	$913
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$1,896	$1,942
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$46

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

41854 - BAS STAR

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$88,500
2022	$134,300
Net Change	$45,800

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$88,500	$134,300	$713	$842
TOWN	$88,500	$134,300	$266	$315
SCHOOL	$60,600	$104,300	$1,519	$1,956
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,498	$3,113
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$615

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,516	$5,127
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$389

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$76,000
2022	$134,900
Net Change	$58,900

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$76,000	$134,900	$612	$846
TOWN	$76,000	$134,900	$229	$316
SCHOOL	$76,000	$134,900	$1,905	$2,530
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,746	$3,692
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$946

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,335	$3,788
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$453

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$152,300
2022	$226,800
Net Change	$74,500

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$152,300	$226,800	$1,227	$1,422
TOWN	$152,300	$226,800	$458	$532
SCHOOL	$124,400	$196,800	$3,119	$3,691
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,804	$5,645
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$841

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,736	$2,866
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$130

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$110,400
2022	$137,400
Net Change	$27,000

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$91,800	$117,400	$739	$736
TOWN	$91,800	$117,400	$276	$275
SCHOOL	$44,650	$66,700	$1,119	$1,251
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,134	$2,262
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$128

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$7,550	$5,718
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$1,832

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$103,300
2022	$153,300
Net Change	$50,000

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$103,300	$153,300	$832	$961
TOWN	$103,300	$153,300	$311	$359
SCHOOL	$75,400	$123,300	$1,890	$2,312
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,033	$3,632
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$599

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

41854 - BAS STAR

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$138,500
2022	$171,600
Net Change	$33,100

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$138,500	$171,600	$1,116	$1,076
TOWN	$138,500	$171,600	$417	$402
SCHOOL	$110,600	$141,600	$2,773	$2,656
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,306	$4,134
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$172

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$78,900
2022	$101,000
Net Change	$22,100

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$78,900	$101,000	$635	$633
TOWN	$78,900	$101,000	$237	$237
SCHOOL	$78,900	$101,000	$1,978	$1,894
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,850	$2,764
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$86

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$3,255,300
2022	$3,255,300
Net Change	$0

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
SCHOOL	$0	$0	$0	$0
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$0	$0
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$0

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$67,500
2022	$67,500
Net Change	$0

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
SCHOOL	$0	$0	$0	$0
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$0	$0
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$0

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$933,100
2022	$933,100
Net Change	$0

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
SCHOOL	$0	$0	$0	$0
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$0	$0
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$0

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$894,800
2022	$1,048,900
Net Change	$154,100

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$894,800	$1,048,900	$7,050	$6,146
TOWN	$894,800	$1,048,900	$3,569	$3,110
SCHOOL	$894,800	$1,048,900	$18,214	$16,501
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$28,833	$25,757
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$3,076

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$134,200
2022	$181,300
Net Change	$47,100

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$123,040	$169,300	$969	$992
TOWN	$123,040	$169,300	$491	$502
SCHOOL	$68,450	$110,600	$1,716	$2,074
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,176	$3,568
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$392

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

Net Change	$10,800

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$31,500	$42,300	$248	$248
TOWN	$31,500	$42,300	$126	$125
SCHOOL	$31,500	$42,300	$790	$793
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$1,164	$1,166
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$2

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,925	$4,104
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$179

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$235,400
2022	$373,600
Net Change	$138,200

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$235,400	$373,600	$1,855	$2,189
TOWN	$235,400	$373,600	$939	$1,108
SCHOOL	$235,400	$373,600	$5,902	$7,007
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$8,696	$10,304
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$1,608

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$492

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$54,800
2022	$57,500
Net Change	$2,700

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$54,800	$57,500	$432	$337
TOWN	$54,800	$57,500	$219	$171
SCHOOL	$0	$0	$0	$0
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$651	$508
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$143

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$167,600
2022	$237,900
Net Change	$70,300

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$167,600	$237,900	$1,321	$1,394
TOWN	$167,600	$237,900	$668	$705
SCHOOL	$167,600	$237,900	$3,412	$3,743
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,401	$5,842
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$441

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$114,000
2022	$169,600
Net Change	$55,600

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$114,000	$169,600	$898	$994
TOWN	$114,000	$169,600	$455	$503
SCHOOL	$114,000	$169,600	$2,858	$3,181
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,211	$4,678
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$467

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.
