You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$127,800
2022	$166,500
Net Change	$38,700

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$83,640	$113,200	$659	$663
TOWN	$83,640	$113,200	$334	$336
SCHOOL	$62,050	$95,800	$1,263	$1,507
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,256	$2,506
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$250

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$6,027	$6,701
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$674

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$171,200
2022	$204,600
Net Change	$33,400

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$171,200	$204,600	$1,349	$1,199
TOWN	$171,200	$204,600	$683	$607
SCHOOL	$171,200	$204,600	$4,292	$3,837
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$6,324	$5,643
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$681

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,363	$3,499
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$136

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$33,600
2022	$43,300
Net Change	$9,700

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,586	$2,331
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$255

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$76,400
2022	$84,700
Net Change	$8,300

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$76,400	$84,700	$602	$496
TOWN	$76,400	$84,700	$305	$251
SCHOOL	$48,500	$54,700	$1,216	$1,026
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,123	$1,773
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$350

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$692

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$303,900
2022	$380,200
Net Change	$76,300

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$293,003	$294,137	$2,309	$1,723
TOWN	$293,003	$294,137	$1,169	$872
SCHOOL	$293,003	$294,137	$6,738	$5,506
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$10,216	$8,101
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$2,115

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$280,500
2022	$316,500
Net Change	$36,000

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$280,500	$316,500	$2,210	$1,855
TOWN	$280,500	$316,500	$1,119	$939
SCHOOL	$280,500	$316,500	$5,710	$4,979
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$9,039	$7,773
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$1,266

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,044	$4,868
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$176

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$129,500
2022	$164,500
Net Change	$35,000

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$129,500	$164,500	$1,020	$964
TOWN	$129,500	$164,500	$517	$488
SCHOOL	$129,500	$164,500	$3,247	$3,085
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,784	$4,537
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$247

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$9

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$13,200
2022	$17,600
Net Change	$4,400

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$13,200	$17,600	$104	$103
TOWN	$13,200	$17,600	$53	$52
SCHOOL	$13,200	$17,600	$331	$330
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$488	$485
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$3

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$21,900
2022	$14,600
Net Change	-$7,300

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$21,900	$14,600	$173	$86
TOWN	$21,900	$14,600	$87	$43
SCHOOL	$21,900	$14,600	$549	$274
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$809	$403
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$406

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$280,900
2022	$376,600
Net Change	$95,700

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$280,900	$376,600	$2,213	$2,207
TOWN	$280,900	$376,600	$1,120	$1,117
SCHOOL	$280,900	$376,600	$7,043	$7,063
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$10,376	$10,387
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$11

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,909	$4,850
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$59

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$15,066
2022	$15,467
Net Change	$401

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$15,066	$15,467	$119	$91
TOWN	$15,066	$15,467	$60	$46
SCHOOL	$15,066	$15,467	$307	$243
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$486	$380
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$106

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$3,280,000
2022	$3,280,000
Net Change	$0

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
SCHOOL	$0	$0	$0	$0
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$0	$0
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$0

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$317,200
2022	$265,000
Net Change	-$52,200

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
TOWN	$0	$0	$0	$0
SCHOOL	$0	$0	$0	$0
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$0	$0
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$0

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.
