Year	Assessed Value
2021	$169,100
2022	$212,100
Net Change	$43,000

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$169,100	$212,100	$1,332	$1,243

SCHOOL	$141,200	$182,100	$3,540	$3,415
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,546	$5,287
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$259

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$65,700
2022	$79,400
Net Change	$13,700

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$65,700	$79,400	$518	$465
TOWN	$65,700	$79,400	$262	$235
SCHOOL	$65,700	$79,400	$1,647	$1,489
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,427	$2,189
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$238

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$81,500
2022	$98,400
Net Change	$16,900

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$37,740	$47,040	$297	$276
TOWN	$37,740	$47,040	$151	$139
SCHOOL	$15,750	$27,700	$395	$520
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$843	$935
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$92

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

Net Change	$23,800

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

SCHOOL	$142,400	$166,200	$3,275	$3,111
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,965	$4,578
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$387

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$204,000
2022	$307,300
Net Change	$103,300

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$204,000	$307,300	$1,607	$1,801
TOWN	$204,000	$307,300	$814	$911
SCHOOL	$204,000	$307,300	$5,115	$5,763
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$7,536	$8,475
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$939

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$216,000
2022	$289,000
Net Change	$73,000

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$147,204	$149,948	$1,160	$879
TOWN	$147,204	$149,948	$587	$445
SCHOOL	$165,804	$169,948	$3,813	$3,181
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,560	$4,505
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$1,055

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$143,800
2022	$192,600
Net Change	$48,800

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$143,800	$192,600	$1,133	$1,129
TOWN	$143,800	$192,600	$574	$571
SCHOOL	$115,900	$162,600	$2,359	$2,558
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,066	$4,258
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$192

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$110,600
2022	$158,600
Net Change	$48,000

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$110,600	$158,600	$871	$929
TOWN	$110,600	$158,600	$441	$470
SCHOOL	$82,700	$128,600	$1,683	$2,023
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,995	$3,422
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$427

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$8,443	$7,838
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$605

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$141,100
2022	$183,300
Net Change	$42,200

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$141,100	$183,300	$1,112	$1,074
TOWN	$141,100	$183,300	$563	$544
SCHOOL	$141,100	$183,300	$2,872	$2,884
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,547	$4,502
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$45

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$1,956	$2,173
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$217

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$178,700
2022	$235,700
Net Change	$57,000

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,975	$4,984
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$9

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$20,600
2022	$226,500
Net Change	$205,900

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$84,200
2022	$115,600
Net Change	$31,400

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$84,200	$115,600	$663	$677
TOWN	$84,200	$115,600	$336	$343
SCHOOL	$18,450	$44,900	$463	$842
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$1,462	$1,862
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$400

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$57,700
2022	$71,900
Net Change	$14,200

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,012	$1,980
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$32

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$24,200
2022	$29,000
Net Change	$4,800

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$116,600
2022	$148,200
Net Change	$31,600

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$116,600	$148,200	$919	$868
TOWN	$116,600	$148,200	$465	$439
SCHOOL	$116,600	$148,200	$2,681	$2,774
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,065	$4,081
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$16

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$97,000
2022	$97,000
Net Change	$0

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$97,000	$97,000	$764	$568
TOWN	$97,000	$97,000	$387	$288
SCHOOL	$97,000	$97,000	$2,231	$1,816
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,382	$2,672
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$710

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$7,786	$7,891
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$105

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$155,100
2022	$200,000
Net Change	$44,900

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$6,122	$6,186
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$64

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$117,700
2022	$158,000
Net Change	$40,300

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,967	$3,226
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$741

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$145,200
2022	$188,300
Net Change	$43,100

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$145,200	$188,300	$1,144	$1,103
TOWN	$145,200	$188,300	$579	$558
SCHOOL	$117,300	$158,300	$2,941	$2,969
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$4,664	$4,630
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$34

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$163,700
2022	$188,700
Net Change	$25,000

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$163,700	$188,700	$1,290	$1,106
TOWN	$163,700	$188,700	$653	$560
SCHOOL	$122,775	$141,525	$3,078	$2,654
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,021	$4,320
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$701

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,276	$4,967
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$1,691

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$84,100
2022	$107,500
Net Change	$23,400

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$84,100	$107,500	$663	$630
TOWN	$84,100	$107,500	$335	$319
SCHOOL	$56,200	$77,500	$1,409	$1,454
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,407	$2,403
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$4

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

Net Change	$40,100

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$105,100	$145,200	$828	$851
TOWN	$105,100	$145,200	$419	$431
SCHOOL	$39,350	$74,500	$987	$1,397
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,234	$2,679
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$445

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$135,900
2022	$181,400
Net Change	$45,500

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$6,679	$5,320
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$1,359

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$162,800
2022	$222,200
Net Change	$59,400

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$162,800	$222,200	$1,283	$1,302
TOWN	$162,800	$222,200	$649	$659
SCHOOL	$134,900	$192,200	$3,382	$3,605
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,314	$5,566
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$252

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$790	$864
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$74

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$100,500
2022	$124,600
Net Change	$24,100

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$88,410	$90,104	$697	$528
TOWN	$88,410	$90,104	$353	$267
SCHOOL	$88,410	$90,104	$1,800	$1,417
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,850	$2,212
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$638

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

Net Change	$54,300

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$120,800	$175,100	$952	$1,026
TOWN	$120,800	$175,100	$482	$519
SCHOOL	$55,050	$104,400	$1,380	$1,958
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,814	$3,503
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$689

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$140,300
2022	$226,800
Net Change	$86,500

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$140,300	$226,800	$1,105	$1,329
TOWN	$140,300	$226,800	$560	$673
SCHOOL	$140,300	$226,800	$3,518	$4,254
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$5,183	$6,256
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$1,073

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$114,900
2022	$142,700
Net Change	$27,800

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$114,900	$142,700	$905	$836
TOWN	$114,900	$142,700	$458	$423
SCHOOL	$87,000	$112,700	$1,771	$1,773
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$3,134	$3,032
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$102

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

		Approximate Total Taxes:	$289	$361
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$72

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$118,700
2022	$143,100
Net Change	$24,400

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$107,540	$131,100	$847	$768
TOWN	$107,540	$131,100	$429	$389
SCHOOL	$52,950	$72,400	$1,328	$1,358
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$2,604	$2,515
		Decrease in Estimated Taxes:		-$89

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

2022	$138,900
Net Change	$36,200

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$102,700	$138,900	$809	$814
TOWN	$102,700	$138,900	$410	$412
SCHOOL	$16,410	$138,900	$411	$2,605
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$1,630	$3,831
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$2,201

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

EXEMPTIONS

No Exemptions on this parcel

You are hereby notified in accordance with the requirements of Section 511 of the Real Property Tax Law of your preliminary assessment. New York State law requires all properties in each municipality to be assessed at market value or at a uniform level of assessment each year.To comply with the law and ensure that all property owners are assessed fairly and accurately, assessments throughout the Town of Palmyra have been reviewed and adjusted as necessary.

Year	Assessed Value
2021	$0
2022	$200
Net Change	$200

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY		$200	$0	$1
TOWN		$200	$0	$1
SCHOOL		$200		$4
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$0	$6
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$6

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.

A change in your property's assessment does not necessarily indicate that your taxes will change. Your tax liability will be affected by several factors, including: changes to school/county/municipal budgets, changes to assessments of other properties, changes to exemptions and/or exemption savings amounts applicable to your property, and apportionment of school and/or county taxes among multiple municipal segments.

The information below is for comparison purposes only.It compares your prior year taxes to what they would have been had your 2022 assessment been in place. This is a hypothetical estimate based on prior year tax levies and does NOT represent your actual future tax liability.

	2021 Taxable Assessed Value *	2022 Preliminary Taxable Assessed Value *	Approximate Tax Liability 2021	Approximate Tax Liability 2022
COUNTY	$190,300	$282,700	$1,499	$1,656
TOWN	$190,300	$282,700	$759	$838
SCHOOL	$190,300	$282,700	$4,771	$5,302
		Approximate Total Taxes:	$7,029	$7,796
		Increase in Estimated Taxes:		$767

Note:Special District and Village taxes, if any, are not included.

* Taxable assessed value is your property's assessed value minus applicable exemptions.

You should examine the tentative assessment roll regardless of this notice or have discussions with representatives of the assessor's office. If you disagree with your property's assessment, in order to protect your right to assessment review, you must file a formal written complaint on the officially prescribed form (RP-524), available from your assessor or online at www.tax.ny.gov, with your Board of Assessment Review (BAR) on or before

Grievance Day: 5/24/2022 A publication entitled "Contesting Your Assessment in New York State" is available at the assessor's office and online: www.tax.ny.gov.

Please note that your assessor and the BAR can only review your assessed value; they do not set and cannot adjust your taxes. If you feel that your assessment is fair but your taxes are too high, your comments should be addressed to the appropriate taxing jurisdiction.
